CALIFORNIA OFFERS SUPPORT Home State Hopes to Nominate

Former Food Head

(Special to The News from The Washington Star.) WASHINGTON-The week just ended has witnessed continued ers, apparently, are less excited over it than they were a week ago. The near nanic with which some of them were afflicted seemingly has given way to a more or less confident belief that without a good deal more of an organization than now is in sight Hoover cannot be "put over" either at Chicago or San Francisco. Dispatches to The Sungay Star from its special political correspondents show that, with a few states excepted, active party workers as a rule, do not take kindly to the Hoover notion. The dispatches indicate that among the rank and file of both parties, and especially the women, there is a strong undercurrent of Hoover sentiment, but if things are allowed to drift along as things now are going this sentiment is not likely to have many spokesmen at either the republican or democratic national convention. In order to elect Hoover delegates, apparently, it is going to be necessary; to overthrow existing party organizations, and ganized strength sufficient to do this does not seem to exist, certainly not at the present

Hoover's home state of Califor nia must be classed as one of the exceptions. A dispatch to The Star Sacramento says California democrats are almost certain to send a solid Hoover delegation to San Francisco, and some of the leading republican papers of the state, including the Les Angeles, on the 21st day of January, 1929. Times, have declared Hoover as their choice. In addition, California women, regardless of party affiliation , are planning a nation-wide organization of Hoover-for-President clubs. The Sacramento Disratch says that 80 per cent of replies to queries sent out by the "committee of thirty" are favorable to Hoover.

Another Pacific coast state-Washington—also is reported as swept by Hoover sentiment. At Tacoma a non-partisan Hoover club has been organized and the Hoover boom is said to be spreading rapidly among the potents of both parties. Democratic leaders of the state are reported to be up in the air and to be awaiting a cue from the National Capital. Although Washington has in Senator Poindexter a candidate for the republican presidential nomination, demand is said to be growing for an unrestricted delega-

That the Hoover boom is not sweeping democrats off their feet everywhere is indicated by a disnatch from St. Paul. After talking Hoover vigorously for two weeks, The Star's correspondent says, Minnesota democrats now apparently are swinging toward McAdoo. The Wood boom in Minnesota got something of a setback during the week. when the republican state committee declined to call the state convention for February, and set a date in the latter part of March. The Wood men, believing themselves well in the lead, wanted the thing brought to an early issue, but followers of Lowden, Harding and Taft were able to block their program. The Hoover boom is causing a good deal of agitation in Rhode Island, where the leaders of both par-Hes are reported from Providence es being firmly against the former food administrator. The republiran leaders are represented as playing Lowden off against Hoover, holding out that the Illinois governor is equally a capable business man and has the additional attraction of party regularity. But Hoover sentiment is gaining in both parties, the rorrespondent saws, and the leading republican paper of the state is favorably inclined toward him.

In New York state, according to a dispatch from Albany, there is lit-He or no Hoover sentiment among democrats but the same holds true with regard to the other men mentioned as democratic possibilities. A poll of the Wyoming legislature during the week showed Hoover to be first choice of the democratic members, while Lowden was far out in front among the republicans. A dispatch from Milwaukee says there is a lot of Hoover sentiment among independent republicans and democrats in Wisconsin, but that it would have to be organized to be effective. # DOWNING DEMANDS GRAND JURY PROBE BOOM FOR HOOVER WILL FIGHT TO END IN OUSTER

Political Observers Say More Downing Sends Hot Answer to Burkhardt, Characterizing Charges as Trumped-up—Says It's Impossible to Get Fair Hearing

Declaring that he will fight the ouster proceedings brought against him and characterizing the action of Mayor Burkhardt as discourteous and ungentlemanly, Frank A. Downing, civil service commissioner, mailed his answer to the mayor last night. spread of the presidential boom of Downing went thru the list of charges and said all were false. Herbert Hoover, but the party lead- He declared that he wanted a hearing, but said he felt that the mayor's mind was made up and that he could not have a fair and impartial trial. He says it will be for the public to judge.

Following is a copy of a letter sent to the mayor:

January 31, 1919. Mr. Frank A. Burkhardt Mayor of the City of Lima, Ohio.

Your letter of the 28th inst., purporting to set out charges against myself for the purpose of removing me as a member of the Municipal Civil Service Commission, of the City of Lima, Ohio, received this date. I feel it my duty in justice to myself and the other members of the said Commission, to-wit: Oliver Keis, Wilham H. Howell and Edmund Garling, the Clerk of said Commission. to make a statement as to your purported charges.

For your information will say that on the 17th day of January, 1916, without any solicitation on my part, I was appointed as a Member of the Municipal Civil Service Commission for a term of six years by Mayor Bailies Simp-I assure you that I never solicited said appointment; that I gave my services and performed the duties as a Member of said Commission of the City of Lima, Ohio, covering a period when we were at war with Germany. The impluments of said office are practically nil. In other words. I have denated a greater part of my services to the City of Lima, for a period of four years

When you approached me in the corridor of the Court House my resignation be on your deak the next day and assigning as your reasons for making the demand, that [ was an obstructionist and did not have the interests of the City at heart, which statement you know to be false Your demand, accompanied by your statements, reflected on my integ-I want now to inform you that at that time I had under consideration the matter of tendering my resignation, and be relieved of the responsibilities and duties of the Civil Service Commission; but because of your discourteous and unsentlemaniv attitude assumed at this time, I cannot see my way clear to do se

As soon as I assumed the duties as Civil Service Commissioner with Messra Keis and Howell, we immediately selected what we thought was a competent Clerk, in the person of Edmund Garling. now the Acting City Solicitor, We at once revised and prepared new rules, because of the change in the Civil Service Law of our State At that time the man power of our country was being used in Munition Factories to a great extent, and a few months after I was in office, our Country declared war Thereafter, against Germany Congress enacted what is known as the Draft Law, drafting all able hodied men between the ages of twenty-one and forty-six and the rules as to the requirements of the Municipal Service Commission pertaining to age limitations, was twenty-three to forty years, so that you can readily see that the Draft Laws of the Country practically eliminated all persons qualified to take the Municipal Civil Service examination: not only that, but City employees were leaving the City service seeking employment in the Factories at a higher wage. It became necessary for the Commission to raise the age limit and after that was done. practically few responded to take examinations, but through all this crisis eligible lists were practically maintained so that whenever the appointing authority requested a list, it was so furnished or soon thereafter. To be charged with failing to maintain an eligible list during this crisis. I think the Public will join with me in record of all eligible lists of all parties who took the examinations, and all meetings and all persons in the classified service of the City, notwithstanding your charge to the contrary. .

Replying to the second purported count in your charges will say that you are certainly not familiar with the Civil Service Law or you would not have made said charge. After a competitive examination, the Commission have a right to investigate the fitness and qualification of the applicant hefore he is placed on the eligible list and this investigation rests wholly with the Commission.

Your third purported count in your charge is that as a Member of the Commission, I dictated the appointment of the present Superintendent of the Water Works. which statement you know to be false. You also state that I tried to coerce one, H. H. Starrett and Guy Custer, and you know that neither of these gentlemen have ever been connected with the City or have ever been employed in the classified service of the City.

You further state in your third count that I have instilled in the civil service employees of the City of Lima, the belief that they need not fear removal. This statement you you know to be false because you failed to name at least one single employe.

In answer to the fourth count of your trumped-up charges that I have used my position as a means of building up a political machine in the City c Lima, Ohio, and to enlarge my political influence, von know this statement to be false. Had you acted in fairness and justice before making such charges and had gone to the Civil Servhe records and made an investipation, you would find that as many, if not more, Democrats appeared for examination during my term of office than Republicans No one was barred because of his race, color o' creed no that the records will show that as many Democrats passed said examination as Republicans and the same is a public record which you had access to.

During my term of office, the present Chief of Police, who is a Democrat, was promoted and appointed a Chief. At the Commission's request he was present in conducting all examinations for patrolmen and he was permitted to ask questions in their oral exammation for the purpose of ascertaining the best patrolmen for the City. The Commission never, during their term of office, in holding any examination, asked any one their religious or political belief. That no employee discharged or suspended, on appealing his case was dismissed or reinstated except on support of sufficient evidence and at all times given a public hearing.

During my past four years of service, I would not stultify myself in upholding removals of amployees, unless the charges were established by evidence. I will not place the name of persons on the eligible list only unless they merit the same after a competitive examination was duly had. Feeling that your statements and insinuations reflect not only on my integrity, but on the integrity of the Commission as a whole, together with the clerical duties of the efficient Clerk in the person of Mr. Garling, I hereby demand a nublic hearing on your trumped-up charges. The public will be the Judge, because I am now satisfied that your mind is made up and that I cannot have a fair and impartial hearing be-

In view of your conduct and the nature of your trumped-up charges, it is plainly evident that you are actuated by pre-election promises. Therefore, I am today writing to the Prosecuting Attorney, of Allen County, Ohio, demanding as a citizen and a tax payer that an investigation of your election be had under the Corrupt Practice Act of the State of Ohio, at the next term of the Grand

Downing, civil Dempster Thinks Committee service commissioner whom Burkhardt is attempting to oust, fired his first big gun in the fight last night.

Downing is to have a nearing before the mayor Tuesday on charges preferred in an attempt to get him out of office. He wants the investigation at the next session of the grand jury.

Following is he demand for this action sent to Prosecutor John L. Cable last night:

The communication to Cable follows:

Mr. John L. Cable. Lima, Ohio.

Prosecuting Attorney, Allen County, O. My Dear Sir:--

As a citizen and taxpayer of the City of Lima, Ohio, in view of the conduct of Mayor Frank A. Burkhardt in his official capacity, it is plainly evident that he has made pre-election promises. Therefore I demand that at the next term of the grand jury his election be investigated under the Corrupt Practice Act, of Ohio.

> Very respectfully, (Signed) FRANK A. DOWNING.

The letter was mailed to Cable at 6:30 o'clock Saturday night. Downing declared it was his intention to fight the mayor to a finish. Prosecutor Cable declared that he would not call an investigation of Mayor Burkhardt's election unless shown sufficient evidence to warrant a probe by the grand jury.

Downing declared that he had sufficient evidence that would result in the calling of the grand jury probe.

VICK'S VAPORUB

THE FRANKLIN CAR

Winter Does Not Affect Its Growth in Sales Because Winter Never Affects Its Usefulness

THEN a car can be used unrestrictedly the year 'round, the season at which it is bought is immaterial. Motorists are showing that they realize this, by keeping the sales of the Franklin Touring Car steadily on the increase even during the cold months.

Freedom From Trouble and Its Costs

Franklin direct air cooling (no water to boil or freeze) is an important factor in this uniform popularity. Franklin direct air cooling is useful in summer, doing away with overheating, and in winter its advantages are even more valuable. It does away with many common winter annoyances—the usual starting troubles, draining and refilling, expensive anti-freeze mixtures, leaky radiators and pipes.

Under all conditions of roads or weather, the light and flexible Franklin handles readily and rides comfortably. That's why you will find that Franklin owners habitually take longer trips in a day than others, and accomplish them with ease and safety.

Tire Reliability and General Economy

And blowouts and punctures are so rare that most Franklin owners do not bother to carry spare tires. Actual records show that the average is only three punctures in the life of a complete set, with blowouts almost unknown. Economy in every other respect, too, is certified by the familiar Franklin figures:

20 miles to the gallon of gasoline 12,500 miles to the set of tires 50% slower yearly depreciation

No car is so peculiarly fitted for all-year service as the Franklin. Its sales show this. They are increasing faster than those of any other fine car.

Some Recent Franklin Road Records

New York to Boston and return (458.8 miles) in 12 hours, 5 minutes—Indianapolis to Syracuse and beyond (832.6 miles) in 22½ hours— Cincinnati to Cleveland and return (553 miles) in 15 hours, 45 minutes— Boston to Syracuse and return (693 miles) in 24 hours, 20 minutes. with

Extra Fine in Metals Extra Fine in Mileage

A Maxwell car weighs 2130 pounds. It is made of the finest materials that may be obtained.

You cannot find in any car a better crankshaft, better bearings, better axles or better gears.

Neither science nor money can produce them better.

Do you know why such fine materials are used in a car like Mazwell?

We had to.

Keeping its weight down andyet maintaining strength mean the use of only those extra fine steels and metals.

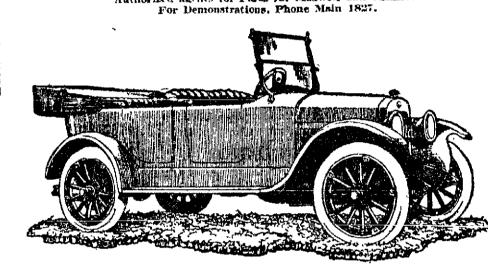

For a metal that is light in weight and yet strong, as any user of metals knows, is a high priced metal.

The use of these fine grades of swel has been the foundation of the business, Maxwell has grown in numbers and friends. The latter countless, the former well on the road to 400,000.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford car can well be called the People's Car, because there are more than 3,000,000 of them in daily operation. That is about seven to one to the nearest follower in the motor car industry. This would not be so if the Ford car had not for sixteen years proven its superiority in service, in durability, and in the low cost for operation and maintenance; this would not be so if the Ford car was not so easy to understand, so simple in construction that anybody and everybody can safely drive it. It is everybody's necessity because it doubles the value of time, and is the quick, convenient, comfortable, and economical method of transporta-

All models of Ford cars are now coming completely equipped with electric starting and lighting systems made and installed by The Ford Motor Company. Guaranteed. We are now just sixty days ahead of the beginning of the new automobile driving season. Will you need a new Ford this year? People who place orders for new Ford cars this year in March will not secure delivery of the new car before July. Do you want to be one in the long waiting list, or do you want to place your order now and make delivery as soon as possible? If you find your order later on among a long waiting list, just remember this advertisement.

While money can be earned by labor, it can be multiplied only by investment.

The whole foundation of America's great financial and industrial supremacy is based on the eagerness of American men to make their savings grow and multiply.

The great fortunes amassed by the Goulds, the Morgans, the Harrimans, the Rockefellers and Russell Sage were developed through investments. Today the opportunities for small investors are greater than ever before.

America's great expansion in the industrial fields offers the small investor many excellent opportunities to participate as stock and bond holders that a few years ago was reserved only for men of means.

THE PITFALLS OF SUCH OPERATIONS EXIST, TOO-, therefore the investor must be wary of all 'wild cat' companies and 'blue sky' promoters.

The Wheatley Company, with Officers and Directors composed of successful bankers and business men is in a position to help you in the selection of investments in financially sound companies. If you have not yet taken advantage of our service, do so now. Join the ever growing number of people who comprise our customers.

Just as soon as the building is completed, we will occupy the entire second floor of the new Citizen's Loan and Building Company of North Main Street. There we will be able to serve you more to our satisfaction. We want to thank the investing public of this section who have made possible the success of the Wheatley Company. We have tried to give you a real service, and you have appreciated it, by a business that we hardly thought was possible. During the next few weeks, while we are waiting to get into our new quarters, please remember that we have already outgrown our present quarters, and are working under difficulties. We know you will bear with us.

If you want to become an investor, if you want your money to grow as America's greatest industries grow and expand, we can show you how you can invest your money in Stocks and Bonds of stable organizations—we deal in no others. THE WHEATLEY REVIEW. which we issue, you will find of great assistance in selecting promising investments. A postal card will bring it to you free of charge.

And remember while money can be earned by labor, it can be multiplied only through investment. tie your ship of savings to a pier and expect it to bring you in a cargo of plenty. Send a ship out on the sea of investment and then you can expect your ship to come in.

UNCLE SAM PLAYS CUPID SATURDAY

Admits English Woman to Nation on Marriage Promise

BOND TO STAY Must Have Husband in Three Months or Be Deported

NEW YORK -- Uncle Sam has assumed the role of Cupid in the latest international love tangle - a veritable human quadrangle.

He has decreed that Emily Knowles, 21 year old English girl, may enter the country and has allowed just three months for real love to develop between her and Guy Spiker, younger brother of Perley Spiker, father of her baby of three months. If, within that period, she and Guy are not married, she and her baby will be deported

It was thru the effort of Mis. Perley Spiker that the barriers were laised and Miss Knowles admitted to the United States, after she had been detained at Ellis Island since January 15. In an affidavit filed with the immigration authorities in Washington Mrs. Spiker said she had been informed of her husband's friendship with Miss Knowles. "which ripened into something more than friendship." She defended the morals of both Spiker and the girl, describing the latter as "lovable, gentle, refined." She asserted she would welcome Miss Knowles into her home and that she "would be glad to see her become the wife of her husband's brother who now makes his home country he has obtained employment in the Sparrows Point ship yards and says he it making $100 a week Miss Knowles and her baby, coming to this country at the request of Mrs. Spiker, were held back at Ellis Island. The Spikers hired attorneys Couldn't Bear Thoughts of Enand finally carried the case to the immigration bureau and labor de partment at Washington. Saturday the bureau ruled that the girl may be admitted by furnishing $1,000 bond. She will be required to go at once to the home of friends named Butterly, at Fall River, Mass. There Guy Spiker will be permitted to see and woo her. At Ellis Island Sat-urday night it was said she would probably leave for Fall River Mon-

A Memorable Week.

R AST WEEK IN LIMA was one which will long be remembered. long be remembered. It saw hundreds of votes made for the commission-manager form of government thru the carrying into effect of a policy of petty politics by an administration elected on a platform pledged to get away from these things.

THE LAST WEEK also saw the beginning of a wrangle which will work against the best interests of the city. The loss of confidence of a large number of people will mean that delays will follow because there will be difficulty in getting thru bond issues which are essential at this time.

THE END IS NOT in sight in this unpleasant political fight. City council has announced that it would probe the charges the mayor has made against certain men. How far it will go is not known, but it is certain that the affair will tend to promote bad feeling between the administrative and legislative branches, which represent different political faiths.

WE HAVE HAD too much of this foolishness already. Lima cannot afford to be hindered in its growth and prosperity by peanut politics and that is what this affair has grown into, Let's get down to business and do something worth while. The opportunity is here and by seeking cooperation instead of stirring up dissension our officials may put Lima on the map as being the best small city in the country.  $\begin{smallmatrix}\mathbf{0}&0&0&0&0&0\end{smallmatrix}$

Efficient, But Unpopular.

UIETLY, steadily, surely, Republican votes are being made by the activities of a corps of men in the treasury department at Washington. These men do not mean to make Republican votes, and they believe they are doing their duty. No doubt they are conscientious, and in many if not in a majority of cases. they may be technically right. Nevertheless. they are making good citizens hopping mad every day.

THESE MEN ARE going over income tax returns as far back as 1916, looking for flaws. If they think they have caught an error involving a few dollars, or a greater sum, they forthwith demand immediate payment. It is apparently useless to ask for details, or an explanation. If the taxpayer thinks he is being unjustly mulcted, and tries to bring about an examination of his books, to demonstrate by facts and figures that he has already paid enough, he gets the horse laugh. At least, he gets no consideration. "Pay or suffer," seems to be the slogan, and every man is presumed to be a tax dodger.

MOST PERSONS ARE disposed to say nothing and take their medicine, thinking that they are among the exceptional few. As a matter of fact, the extent of this practice of prying up extra dollars is widespread. The careful and conscientious are as liable to these peremptory demands as those less careful.

SUCH PIN-PRICKS as these will count far more than matters of far greater importance in the next election, in determining the fate of candidates and parties. The income tax experts may be doing fair and just work, but nevertheless they are stirring up deep resentments.

THE BUSINESS SITUATION during January showed the most notable opening month in years. Trade activity was maintained and the demand for money was not relaxed as is customary following the turn of the year. Payments thru banks were in about the same volume as in December, but a slight falling oif in retail trade was indicated.

JOBBING CENTERS reported buying on a large scale, with general confidence in the maintenance of existing prices or advance therefrom. Textiles were very strong, but late in the month some weakness was shown in cotton goods with willingness of producers to sell ahead. Woolen goods for fall delivery will be apportioned to customers on the basis of past patronage, which is a situation which practically precludes controversy over prices.

IN THE MATTER of steel, prices prevailing last spring are generally adhered to, with the strike declared off. The steel strike cause at a bad time and aside from affecting the workers by stopping their salaries, it had a serious effect on the world which was in need of iron

LOCALLY, THE SITUATION is bright. Manufacturing plants are getting ready for enormous business and bank deposits are last increasing, attesting to the thrift of the people. The report of the real estate board is encouraging, showing that many are buying homes. They are getting in on the ground floor for the are umber of persons who will be brought here by new factories and the expansion of others will make dwellings abnormally scarce. Merchants report heavy business during the month with collections good.

Get Yourself Counted.

W HILE CEÑSUS EÑUMERÁTORS made every possible effort to list everyone in Lima, it is certain that some were missed. It was an impossibility for them to get every name. If you were missed you still have a chance to be counted. The returns have not been made and officials in charge are desirous that all who were missed send in their names at once. On another page of this issue will be found instructions how to do this together with a blank for your convenience.

IT IS TO YOUR interest that you be counted if you were missed.' Everyone wants to see Lima go ahead and one of the best ways to give it a boost is to make a good showing in this censue. Another census will not be taken for 10 years and the city will be rated to a great great extent during that time on the figures secured in this canvass.

All Together, Boost!

FORGE BAYLY, new Chamber of Com-G merce president, is going to give the whole city a chance to get behind a campaign to boost. He has pledged a year of tireless endeavor, and when he says there is going to be things done, that means there is going to be some progress.

OUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE will be rejuvenated and a program of work mapped out and the speediest means of getting that work done adopted. There is much to be accomplished and the fullest support of every citizen must be forthcoming if the best interests of every man, woman and child are to be serv-

VERDICT FOR DEFENDANT

The jury which heard the trial of Steve Vasely against John O'Conneil consuming three days, returned a verdict of no cause of action late Friday night. Vasely was suing for $1,000 damages, claiming that after O'Connell had leased a small, triangular room to him for a restaurant, he interferred with his patronage by leasing the hotel and boarding bouse in the same building to another man.

Frances Nordstrom. herself a talented actress, is the auther of the play, and it has been produced by William A. Brady.

Otis Skinner an actor of whom the American stage is justly proud. brought "The Rise of Peter Barban," this week. He now calls it "Pictro," but it might, with as much effect, be called "Skinner," because it is the individual work of Mr. Skinner that makes the play possible. It is the story of an Italian who fears he has committed the crime of murder against his wife and lives thereafter trepidation that his beloved daughter may discover it. The story lends little interest to the event. I is the skill of Mr. Skinner as a character actor that holds the interest of the audience throughout against the heavy odds of a had play. Clarence and Mary Shaw add something to the general interest, but the hope springs eternal to the breast of every New York playgoer whenever ears that he may eventually find a proper vehicle.

Oliver Morosco produced "Manna's Affair" at the Little Theatre test week. This is the play, which has attracted such general notice be-cause it is the Harvard prize play by Rachel Barton Butler, and unlike most "prize" plays this one made a direct, immediate and strong appeal to the New York audience. This hapby fact is due in the main to the play itself which is interesting and amus-ing, to the excellent east selected by r. Morosco, and the introduction of the Little Theatre -- "little" no longer since it has been entarged. Miss Butler has modeled her play after Moliere's "The Imaginary Invalid," but the copy does not suffer thereby. She is sufficiently origal, modern and adopt to year along parallel lines without coming into collison at any point. Indeed, seldem his a new playwright created sociever a comedy as she, nor one who has handled the subject with such delicacy and effectiveness. Effic Shannon as "Mama" was brilliant, and the entire cast aided considerably in the suc-cess it has scored. The event takes high rank as an avelievement.

Another "wan's" play came in "Big Game." It is as realistic as any play seen this year, and the authors, Willard Robertson and Kilthors, Willard Robertson and Kilbourne Gordon, have successfully transferred to the stage a group of "actions" that are impelling. The story is that of the emotions of men and women isolated from civilization in the great North. A wife finds herself becoming enstrained from the theory who she thinks is a her husband who, she thinks, is a physical coward. She compared him with the big, brawny and brave backwoodsmen, and to his dis-credit He "comes through," however, but not before the audience is electrified by some virile and vigorous acting by most of those engaged, especially George Gaul, Allan Dinehart. Regi-nald Barlow and Pauline Lord. Mrs. Henry Harris is the producer of this play.

Lubovska, one of the noted inter-pretative dancers of the American stage, gives her recital of original dances this week before she makes a tour of the world. This noted art-iste, one of the really brilliant figures in this field, offers a program of her own creation, as varied as it is original. She adds one more interesting event to the group of dance recitals given this season.

Dorothy Davenport, otherwise known as Mrs. Wallace Reid, is returning to the screen. She is playing an important role in "The Fighting Chance," with an all-star cast of players, headed by Courad Nagel and Anna Q. Nilsson.

A crowd gathered around the window of a millinery shop in New York. Mary Pickford was inside buying a hat.

Offerings That Will Please Most Exacting Movie Patrons

By Esther Wagner.

T has been said that confirmed motion-picture fans are the hardest people in the world to please, but a study of the list of productions scheduled for local playhouses during the coming week will prove that managers are capable of pleasing the most exacting and a greatly varied bill is offered to patrens.—tales of intrigue, mystery, jealousy and occuitism. D. W. Griftith's "The Greatest Question' is to be the attraction at the Regent for four days, starting Wednesday, February 4. The fundamental thought of the entire production is the most bafiling question of the ages: There a Horeafter," and the leading roles are taken by Lillian Gish and Robert Harron. The Regent also has a special feature starting today, Mabel Normand is her newest photo-play "Pinto." Mabel goes thru the usual number of foolish stunts and the story is played in a very Normandish way.

Perhaps the most mystifying and baffling of all mystery stories are these of Arsene Lupin, "The gentle-man burglar; and "The Teeth of the Tiger" a Lupin story, is as creepy and mysterious as any one could de-sire. The Faurot Theatre offers this unusual play for one day only, today. A return of the popular screen drama "The Miracle Man" is an-nounced, the attraction to be shown at the Faurot Theater for three days, starting Thursday. The play was witnessed by thousands at its initial howing in Lima and is one of the wonder-plays of the age.

Everybody, especially the girls, hail with delight the announcement that Eugene O'Brien is to be the Sunday attraction at the Lyric Theater. The Handsome Eugene, in "Sealed Hearts, adds another to his Jong list of screen triumps. The picture is to be shown for three days

As a special four-day attraction. the Rialto offers the Ivan Abramson production "Someone Must Pay," with Gail Kane in the stellar role. It is a tale of a jealous husband, how he accuses her of of unfaithfulness, thus forcing to leave her home and husband. "The love affairs, is consequently curtait-Ruined Lady" is a satirical title. It is ed. nothing like the implication. It tells been engaged to the same man for eight or ten years and who fears that she may spend the rest of her life in of sterling this very unsatisfactory state. Therefore she conceives the idea of implireluctant lover, and thereby brings matters to a focus. This is accommatters to a focus. plished in a highly amusing manner, and the curtain descends upon the lover finally realizing that the least a gentleman could do under such circumstances is to save the honor of the lady by wedlock. The company is led by John Miltern and Carlotta Montery. There are a dozen members of the cast, most of them satisfactory, but George is always entertaining and pleasing and in "The Ruined Lady" she has better opportunities than has fallen to her lot for many seasons. Frances Nordstrom. herself a talented actress, is the unthor of the play, and it has been produced by William A. Brady.

Otis Skinner an actor of whom the American stage is justly proud. brought "The Riso of Peter Barban," this week. He now calls it "Pietro," but it might, with as much effect, be called "Skinner," because it is the individual work of Mr. Skinner that makes the play possible. story of an Italian who fears he has committed the prime of murder against his wife and lives thereafter In trepidation that his beloved daughter may discover it. The story tends title interest to the event. It is the skill of Mr. Skinner as a character actor that holds the interest of the audience throughout against the heavy odds of a had play. O. B. Clarence and Mary Shaw add something to the general interest, but the hope springs eternal to the breast of New York Dialia Mr. Skinner appears that he may eventually find a proper vehicle.

Oliver Morosco produced "Mama's Affair" at the Little Theatre fast week. This is the play which has attracted such general notice because it is the Harvard prize play by Rachel Barton Butler, and unlike most "prize" plays this one made a direct, immediate and strong appeal to the New York andience. This happy fact is due in the main to the play itself which is interesting and amusing, to the excellent east selected by r. Morosco, and the introduction of the Litle Theatre—"little" no longer since it has been enlarged. Miss Butter has modeled her play after Moliere's "The Imaginary Invalid," but the copy-does not suffer thereby. She is sufficiently origal, modern and adept to veer along parallel lines without coming into collison at any point. Indeed, seldom has a new playwright created sociever a comedy as she, nor one who has handled the subject with such delicacy and effectiveness. Effic Shannon as "Mama" was brilliant, and the entire cast aided considerably in the success it has scored. The event takes high rank as an aychievement.

Another "man's" play came in "Big Game." It is as realistic as any play seen this year, and the authors, Willard Robertson and Kil bourne Gordon, have successfully transferred to the stage a group of "actions" that are impelling. The story is that of the emotions of men and women isolated from civilization in the great North. A wife finds herself becoming enstranged from her husband who, she thinks, is a physical coward. She compares him with the big, brawny and brave backwoodsmen, and to his dis-credit. He "comes through." however, but not before the audience is electrified by some virile and vigorous acting by most of those engaged, especially George Gaul, Allan Dinehart, Reginald Barlow and Pauline Lord, Mrs. Henry Harris is the producer of this

Lubovska, one of the noted inter-pretative dancers of the American stage, gives her recital of original dances this week before she makes a tour of the world. This noted artiste, one of the 'really brilliant figures in this field, offers a program of her own creation, as varied as it is original. She adds one more interesting event to the group of dance recitals given this season.

Dorothy Davenport, otherwise known as Mrs. Wallace Reid, is returning to the screen. She is playing an important role in "The Fighting Chance," with an all-star cast of players, headed by Conrad Nagel and Anna Q. Nisson.

A crowd gathered around the window of a millinery shop in New York. Mary Pickford was inside buying a hat.

Ten Would Wed Upon Theatre's Stage As News-Orpheum Leap Year Couple Friday Night, Feb. 6

Some Want Wives and Some Want Husbands and So The News and The Orpheum are Trying to Help Them Realize Their Wishes, According to Applications They've Made

Ten would wed upon the stage at the Orpheum theatre Friday night, February 6, in order to receive the handsome and useful presents which the firms represented upon this page have offered to the couple who would be married publicly at the Orpheum upon that date. Some want husbands and some wives, but as yet no application has been received from anyone who has someone else willing to marry them.

However, there is yet hope. Out of the ten applications, the Orpheum is trying to bring a couple together, as each has expressed the wish to marry, if someone can be found, who is acceptable, to be the other party to the contract.

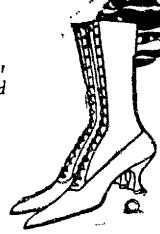

Surely this offer is a splendid means of some farsighted and thrifty couple to heat the high cost of living and of loving. For the presents to be made them from the splendid stocks of the merchants represented on this page are worth enough money to start them off in life much more prosperous than bundreds of folks are today, who have been married for years.

The Orpheum is celebrating the advent of Leap Year, 1920, with the presentation of two Grand Leap Year Shows during the week that starts Monday, each program to consist of six acts of the most costly and wonderful vaudeville ever brought to Lima. There will be a complete change of program at the matinee Thursday.

The black-handers were puzzled. They could not understand how it happened that Giallambardo had come into the toils unless one of the three men arrested had "squealed." And perhans should say right here that the gang never realized they were ever under surveillance, and that every move nade by them individually was noted in the daily reports of Secret Service ent to Washington.

The Detective's Trick.

When Crocervera and DePriema were brought to my office I knew in advance that neither of them would talk, having had the characteristics of the men recorded long before they were arrested. However, in order to give Crocervera the impression that DePriema had told me a lot of the workings of the gang. I hit upon the idea of keeping DePriema in my inner office for several hours while Crocervera remained in an outer office. I was timing my effort for a purpose. As De-Priema was leaving I stepped to the door with him and shook his hand warmly and patted him on the back in order that Crocervera, seeing the performance, might gain the impression that DePriema had confessed all he knew about the gang. Naturally, the object of this move was to tempt Crocervera to talk and give information important to the government. But Crocervera did not talk. The subsequent arrest of Giallambardo serveil to strengthen the impression already planted in the mind of Crocervera that DePriema had betrayed him, and we overheard Crocervera telling this to the members of the gang while they were in our office.

The gang was not in position to take revenge on DePriema, as he was in Sing Sing prison, where the three men had been sent upon conviction on the charge of passing counterfeit money. Following the hereditary Sicilian custom, the gang then proceeded to select and of black-handers who preyed a blood relative of DePriema and mark upon the Italian miners in Pittston, him for murder. There being no male Then one night, when the streets were blood relative of DePriema on this side slippery with a cold, drizzling rain, of the Atlantic, the Black Hand Society there came an ominous knock at his decided that the nearest male relative must pay the penalty for DePriema's treason. Benedetto, the brother-inlaw, was chosen as the sacrifice.

These details of the motive of the murder, and the society's choosing Petto, the Ox. to do the killing were confessed to me several years later by members of the gang after I succeeded in convicting them for counterfeiting not playing/possum. Beside the warm and had them sentenced to long terms in the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta, Georgia.

pared to the $4,000 fire loss caused by 41 fires during January 1919. A complete report of the fire loss for January to be presented next week will show, according to fire Chief Mack, that a large number of fires were caused by defective flues and sparks flying from chimneys.

SUIT IN COURT CAUSE OF BIG DAMAGE ACTION

Damages in the sum of $3,000 are arked by A. E. Wilson, real estate dealer, against Samuel Bioderman and John W. Miller, farmers, claiming that they injured his business prosecution of a suit in Mercer county courts.

Wilson charges they sent him thru the mails a threatening letter to force him to comply with their demands. The trouble arose ever the sale of a farm which Wilson made to Biederman and Miller.

Your Table Linen and Bill Smith's Gveralls

"I would like to use the laundry," said Mrs. Porter, "but I just can't bring myself to the thought of having my table linen washed with Bill Smith's overalls, and Sam Brown's socks."

Mrs. Forter unwittingly exposed in this remark her lack of familiarity with modern laundry methods.

Really, it would make little difference from the sanitary point of view if this mixing were practised, for everything we wash is sterilized as well as cleansed,

But actually there is no such promiscuous washing. The things that come to us in your bundle are all carefully sorted. Hosiery is washed only with hosiery, table linen only with table linen, "pinks" only with "pinks" and so on. Each class of goods is washed separately from every other-and the water renewed from nine to twelve times while laundering is in progress.

This is a method superior even to that of the laundress. You receive your washing back sweetly clean-and pure.

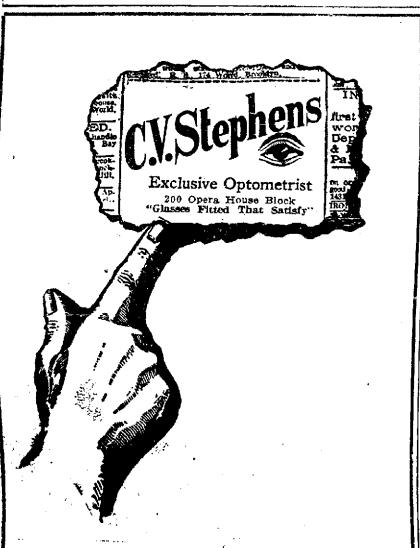

But are you sure of this when you send your washing to some unknown place, where there is no supervision, and little knowledge of modern laundry sanitation?

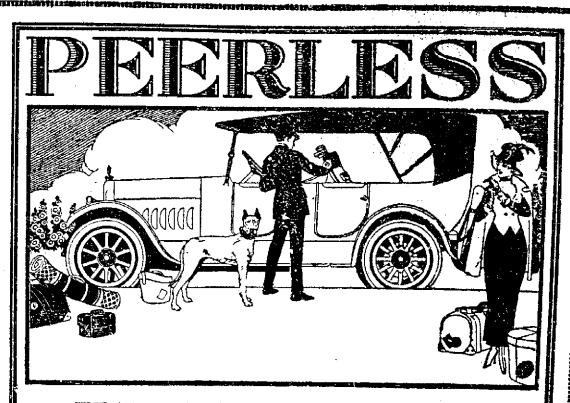

If you would best guard your own and your family's health, and secure refreshing cleanliness, at moderate cost, call us up. We will send our salesman for your family

LIKE THOSE TO BE FOUND -AT EILERMAN'S

Better Dressers readily single out a store like this then make it "their store" when in the need of becoming dress requisites.

They experience that confidence common among careful dressers, that make them feel and know, that the "trade mark" of an institution of this caliber implies the standard of Quality and Style to be found there at all times.

The cost is not in advance of the more carelessly operated institutions, but in many cases even lower.
